

This is to protest your decision to allow Sinclair Broadcasting to air "Stolen Honor", a film critical of presidential candidate John Kerry, without also requiring broadcast of a pro-Kerry film, such as "Going Upriver". The broadcast of such a pointedly biased film without presentation of the opposite point of view violates any standard of media objectivity, particularly so close to the general election.